Re: Certificate of services rendered by Dr. Najet Brahmi

This is to certify that Dr. Najet Brahmi has contributed articles on a regular basis to The MENA Business Law Review, a quarterly business law magazine published by LexisNexis Middle East & North Africa. In addition to providing Tunisia business law news on a quarterly basis to this publication, Dr. Brahmi has contributed numerous scholarly articles on a regular basis since the magazine's first edition in 2016.

In addition, in light of her legal academic background, her expertise in commercial law and arbitration, and her knowledge of the Middle East North Africa region, LexisNexis invited Dr. Brahmi to participate on the jury of both the Women in Law Awards and the Qatar Business Law Forum awards in 2022 and for the Women in Law Awards in 2022 and 2023. For the Women in Law awards, Dr. Brahmi was Chair of her judging committee.

LexisNexis is very satisfied with the services that Dr. Brahmi has provided over the years.

Yours very truly,

Caroline Presber
